[REDACTED] thirty-six year old Police-President Ohlers of G6rlitz (B-11) is known to be an officer of the Red Army with the rank of captain. At one time he was a Hitler Youth leader, and later a lieutenant in the German Army. Ohlers was taken prisoner by the Russians in the East. During his internment he was promoted to first lieutenant. Subsequently, he joined the National Committee of "Freies Deutschland" as well as the Seydlitz Army. After attending the Lenin School in Moscow, Ohlers was inducted into the Red Army. He is reported to have acted as guide and advisor to Soviet forces when the Russians overran the towns of G6rlitz and Bautzen in his home district. Ohler is thoroughly disliked by the population.
